Capri

Walks

Things to do and see

Capri - Anacapri - Grotta di Matermania

- Route: Take the Giardini di Augusto in a few minutes from the Piazzetta. Once there you will enjoy spectacular views over the Posillipo and Monte Pino. The light house was used to send signals across the water.
- Opening times:
  - 9.00 · 13.00

Chiesa San Michele

This church is most famous for its splendid majolica floor covering the whole area under the cathedral dome and the rose. The Neapolitan artist Leonardo Chiaravalle created this masterpiece in 1705. The floor is itself, a marvel of art precision. One of the scenes of the episode of Adam and Eve built from the Garden of Eden can be appreciated in all its detail: the flowers, the plants and the animals, including mythical ones such as a griffin, a dragon and a mermaid. The remarkable way of arranging all the plants is a true masterpiece.
- Route: Walk from Bella Italia to Anacapri and get off at the Democratea stop (30 minutes) or walk down along the road until leads to the Blue Grotto (30 minutes).
- Opening times:
  - 10.00 · 13.00

Antico porto

route to illustrate the area’s nature and history, creating a sense of wonder.

Faraglioni

The Blue Grotto is perhaps the most renowned of those grottos. From the entrance of the cave, one can see a beautiful stairway leading to the sea, where a small boat is waiting to take you on a tour to discover the cave. The Blue Grotto is one of the most visited places in the world, due to its unique beauty and the stunning views it offers. It is a perfect place to spend a few minutes admiring the natural wonders of the area.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Blue Grotto by foot (20 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Villa San Michele

This site is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Chiesa di San Michele

The church is most famous for its splendid majolica floor covering the whole area under the cathedral dome and the rose. The Neapolitan artist Leonardo Chiaravalle created this masterpiece in 1705. The floor is itself, a marvel of art precision. One of the scenes of the episode of Adam and Eve built from the Garden of Eden can be appreciated in all its detail: the flowers, the plants and the animals, including mythical ones such as a griffin, a dragon and a mermaid. The remarkable way of arranging all the plants is a true masterpiece.
- Route: Walk from Bella Italia to Anacapri and get off at the Democratea stop (30 minutes) or walk down along the road until leads to the Blue Grotto (30 minutes).
- Opening times:
  - 10.00 · 13.00

Anacapri

The Blue Grotto is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Villa San Michele

This site is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Anacapri

The Blue Grotto is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Villa San Michele

This site is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Villa San Michele

This site is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Villa San Michele

This site is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).

Villa San Michele

This site is one of the most important structures of the island. It was designed by Count Raffaele Pallavicini, who built it between 1885 and 1908. The villa is located on a cliff overlooking the sea and offers stunning views of the islands and the surrounding area. The villa is open to the public and can be reached by bus or by boat. The entrance fee is €15 per person.
- Route: From Anacapri, you can reach the Villa San Michele by foot (10 minutes) or by bus (5 minutes).